

WASHINGTON SOCIETY:-

Quiet Marks Last Sunday

Wilson Pass Final Sabbath Before Leaving White House.

By EVELYN C. HUNT.

The President and Mrs. Wilson spent the last Sunday in the White House very quietly. In spite of the inclement weather they went out for their usual drive for an hour or so during the afternoon.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Colby were guests of honor at a breakfast for which Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Govein assembled a notable company yesterday. In the evening Mrs. Christian Hagan entertained a small but brilliant company at a dinner for the Colbys.

Thursday night Mrs. Robert Woods Bliss will entertain at dinner in compliment to Secretary and Mrs. Colby. Mrs. Bliss arriving in Washington from California on Wednesday.

The Misses Colby and Mrs. Colby will entertain at a dance this evening.

Secretary Colby plans to go up to New York today, but he will return almost immediately as he is to open the meeting of the Southern Commercial Congress here on Wednesday.

NORTH CAROLINIANS TO HONOR DANIELS.

Secretary and Mrs. Daniels, and Representative and Mrs. John H. Small, will be the guests of honor at a large reception which the North Carolina Society will give this evening at 2400 Sixteenth street. Representative Small is a former president of the society, and Secretary Daniels was the honor guest of the organization at a banquet eight years ago when he first came to Washington.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Joseph Daniels, and the Secretary of the Interior, Judge John Barton Payne, will be among the guests at a dinner party which the British Ambassador and Lady Geddes will entertain at the embassy tomorrow evening. Sir Auckland and Lady Geddes also have cards out for a dinner party on Wednesday.

Secretary and Mrs. Daniels have closed their residence on Wyoming avenue, and are spending a few days at the apartment of Mrs. Daniels' mother, Mrs. Adelaide Worth Bagley at the Dupont. On Wednesday they will go to the home of Mrs. George Dewey on K street to be her guests until they leave on the evening of March 5 for their home in Raleigh.

Judge Payne to leave Washington March 10. Judge John Barton Payne, the Secretary of the Interior, will leave Washington March 10, when he will go to Asheville for a fortnight before going to Chicago, which is his home.

The Cuban Minister and Mme. de Cespedes will entertain at dinner tonight in honor of the Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Edwin T. Meredith. Secretary and Mrs. Meredith will close their apartment this week, and next Monday will start for Des Moines to superintend the completion of a new home which they are building.

The Ambassador of Spain and Senora de Riano have returned to Washington from New York, where they had been for a few days. They went to New York for the opening of the new Institute of Spain at Columbia University, on Thursday, and following the formal opening of the president of the college and Mrs. Nicholas Murray Butler entertained a company at dinner in their honor.

SEBASTIAN PREMIER'S DAUGHTER TO VISIT IN WASHINGTON. Minister and Mme. Grouitch will have as their guests this week Mr. and Mrs. George B. Matthews, of Buffalo, N. Y., who will arrive Tuesday, to remain some time. Mme. Grouitch will entertain at a luncheon Wednesday, and with the Minister, has cards out for a dinner March 3.

Miss Vota Vesnitch, daughter of the premier of Serbia, who has been a frequent visitor at the legation during the winter, will arrive in Washington Thursday, to be the guest of Miss Adeline Oxnard.

The Secretary of the British Embassy and Mrs. R. L. Cradock are leaving Washington about March 15 for a tour of the Southern resorts.

COL. ROOSEVELT TO VISIT REP. AND MRS. LONGWORTH.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt will be the guests of Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth for the inauguration. Probably no one announcement of the personnel of the new administration has been received with more pleasure and interest than that Col. Roosevelt would be Assistant Secretary of the Navy, the position which first brought his distinguished father into Washington official life, and which his cousin has held throughout this administration, until he resigned in order to make the campaign as his party's Vice Presidential nominee.

Senator Edward James Gay entertained a number of his colleagues yesterday at the Shoreham at a breakfast which really was a breakfast—the meal being served at the "ungodly" hour of 8:30.

MRS. LONG OPENS HOME IN CAPITAL FOR SEASON.

Mrs. Breckenridge Long, who has recently opened her home on Sixteenth street for the spring season, after having been absent from Washington all winter, resumed her Sunday receptions yesterday, being at home to her friends after 4 o'clock. Mrs. Long will have Miss Minnie C. Potter, daughter of Mrs. William B. Potter, of St. Louis, as her guest for the inauguration and for some weeks thereafter. Mrs. John B. Kendrick, wife of Senator Kendrick, is entertaining at luncheon today for Mrs. Long.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler will entertain at dinner tonight at their Sixteenth street home in compliment to the United States Consul at Stockholm, at present home on leave, and Mrs. Post Wheeler.

Senator and Mrs. Sheppard were hosts at a big buffet supper at the Madison Dupont last night, entertaining in honor of the Postmaster General and Mrs. Albert Sidney Burleson.

Mrs. Burleson and Miss Sydney and her family were in Washington on Tuesday.

MRS. GILBERT S. SULLIVAN.

Formerly Miss Anne Ferris, whose marriage took place Monday afternoon. Mrs. Sullivan is the sister of Representative Ferris, from Oklahoma.

day for his home in Texas. The Postmaster General will follow as soon as his successor relieves him.

MRS. REED TO ENTERTAIN CARD PARTY AT HOME.

Mrs. James A. Reed will entertain a card party today for her house guest, Mrs. John S. Varnay of Illinois, and for Mrs. Philip Clancy of Buffalo, N. Y. With her will be Mrs. Wesner of St. Louis; Mrs. McClure of Kansas City; and Mrs. Thomas P. Gore and her house guest, Mrs. John S. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Varnay, both of whom are guests of Senator and Mrs. Reed, went to Annapolis yesterday for the Army and Navy basketball game.

Mrs. John C. Fremont entertained at a supper party last night in honor of her son, Comdr. John C. Fremont, who is here from New York for a few days. The guests numbered about twenty and included the Serbian Minister and Mme. Grouitch and the Swiss Minister and Mme. Peter.

VIRGINIA CONGRESSMEN ENTERTAINED AT PARTY.

Representative and Mrs. Edward E. Holland entertained at dinner last evening, when their guests will include the members of the Virginia delegation in Congress and their wives.

Of more than usual interest to local society is the announcement which the Rev. and Mrs. F. Ward Denys are making of the engagement of their daughter Gwendolyn to William Alexander Robinson, of Louisville, Ky. The marriage will take place soon after Easter and because of the recent death of Mr. Robinson's mother, will be a small and quiet one.

FORMER REPRESENTATIVE WEDS IN WASHINGTON.

Equally of considerable local interest is the announcement of the marriage of former Representative William Stuart Reburn, of Washington and Philadelphia, and Mrs. Martha Gardner Osborne, of Chicago, which took place Saturday at the residence of Mr. George A. Garrett, 1805 New Hampshire avenue. Rev. Charles Wood of the Church of the Covenant performed the ceremony. Only relatives and intimate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Reburn left immediately after an extended wedding trip, after which they will be at 1745 N street, long the Washington home of Mrs. John Reburn, the bridegroom's mother, and until his marriage a few years ago of her brother, Gen. William Crozier, long chief of ordnance in the army.

The Rev. and Mrs. George W. Kemper, of 481 McLemore avenue, Memphis, Tenn., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Estelle Kemper, to Mr. Henry Franklin Booth, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Butler of this city. During the war Miss Kemper was in the government service. Mr. Butler was a lieutenant in the U. S. Naval Reserve Force.

Mrs. Merle-Smith, wife of the Third Assistant Secretary of State, will be at home this afternoon for the last time.

MRS. GEORGE J. ZOLNAY ENTERTAINS AT TEA PARTY.

Mrs. George Julian Zolnay was hostess at a studio tea yesterday afternoon, when her friends enjoyed a glimpse of some of Mr. Zolnay's recent work.

Mme. Collardet, wife of the military attaché of the French Embassy, will receive on Tuesdays during March.

Miss Adelaide Oxnard will be the house guest of Miss Elizabeth White on March 28 for the dance which Mr. and Mrs. Jacob A. Ullman, of Baltimore, will give in honor of their daughter, Miss Margaret C. Ullman, and Miss White.

Mrs. Davis Ireland has cards out for a dinner on Thursday night.

Mrs. Edwin Fuller will entertain at luncheon tomorrow in honor of Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins.

CONCERT TO SWELL FUNDS FOR SCHOOL ANNOUNCED.

One of the events in which society is very generally interested in the concert which is to be given at the Continental Memorial Hall for the benefit of the Dobbs Ferry School Fund. Lady Geddes is a Dobbs Ferry girl and has been actively interested in the plans for this concert and is expected to entertain a party at the concert, at which Mrs. Logan Peland will be one of the stars.

Miss Marcia Chapin and Miss Mrs. Morgan, popular young graduates of Dobbs Ferry, in this city, have asked Miss Frances Hampson, Miss Peggy Martin, Miss Celeste Crosby, Miss Delphine Hoyt, Miss Helen Tucker, Miss Margaret Crosby, Miss Gladys Kaine, Miss Barbra Drake, Miss Katharine Dent
